PROJECT COVID

To ensure continuity of learning and development in students during these uncertain times, teacher of class III ,IV & V conducted various activities virtually on 'Project Covid-19' like Vocabulary (Name of the activity- Covibulary-19) in which students learnt different words which have emerged and introduced post Covid-19 viz- Hotspot, Pandemic, Quarantine, Spike and so on. Students also understood how to avoid 'Very' from words in order to make the language more compact, creative and powerful. Students of class III & IV made posters depicting symptoms and precautions of Covid-19. To combat this pandemic, children shared Do's and Don'ts with their teachers and peers to spread awareness and urged everyone to follow the rules of Lockdown. All these activities not only enhanced their vocabulary skills but also improved their oratory skills.

THANKYOU CARD ACTIVITY

Thank you card activity was done to show the gratitude towards the community helpers amid the crisis of covid-19. This activity was done under the project covid-19 where students made thank you cards for our community helpers who risked their lives during the pandemic of Corona where everybody shut themselves into their houses. These heroes stepped out and took the responsibility to serve and save us.

COVIBULARY-19

An activity of making a vocabulary tree was done. Vocabulary trees were prepared by the students to learn the vocabulary words in a creative and fun way. Students added a new leaf to their tree every time they learned a new vocabulary words.

POEM RECITATION

“Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought and the thought has found words”

-Robert Frost

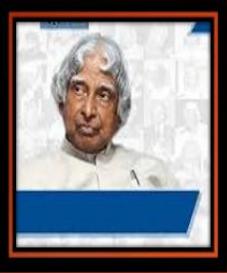

Poem Recitation is one of the most important and effective modes of learning a language and appreciating a piece of literature. Keeping it in view, an Online Poetry Recitation Activity was organized for the students of Classes VI and VII. Through this activity, children got an opportunity to exhibit their talent and confidence. The children recited the assigned poems with great zeal and enthusiasm.

SPEECH COMPETITION

The students of classes VI, VII & VIII were provided an online platform to showcase their talent by delivering the assigned motivational Speech of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam “Evolution of a Unique You”.

LET'S CHAT

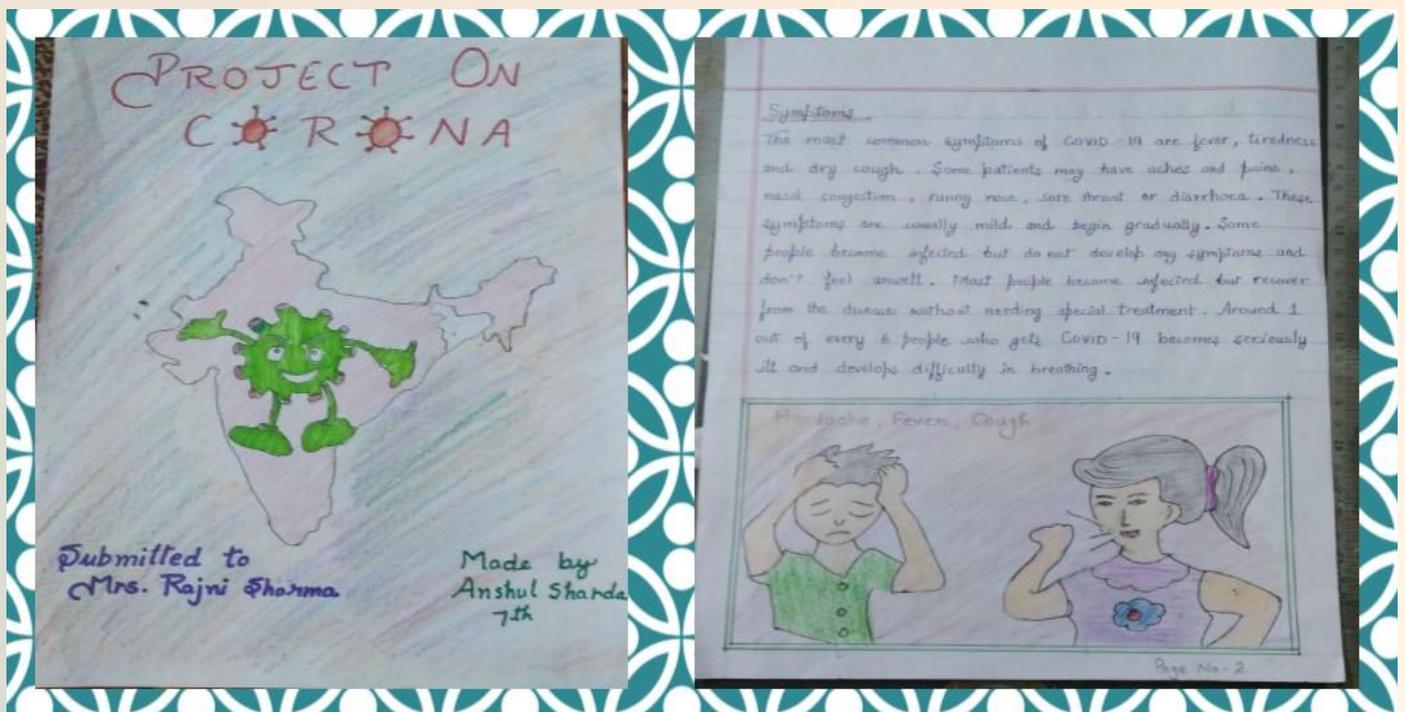

All the students of Middle Department got an opportunity to express themselves through an Online Activity 'Let's Chat'. Students presented their conversations on assigned situations i.e. "Telephonic conversation between two friends who are in the same city but unable to meet due to closure of schools for the last two months", "A conversations between two classmates about online classes" and many more based on real experiences. The objective of this activity is to increase the students' English communication skills.

SCRAPBOOK

The scrapbook work made the children revamps their ability to write and express themselves. The activities which were created lead to the enhancement of knowledge and produced the cohesion of English language.

Apart from English, it also developed their interpersonal skills of the students through Appreciation Letter Writing, Motivational Message texting to their friends, relatives. Most importantly with this student could improve their vocabulary by using words in their conversation, reading novels and also through various forms of writing. They also worked on voice modulation and word stress through speech and poems .Students felt happy and enthusiastic by working on all four domains of English language.

SCRAPBOOK

Older people, and those with underlying medical problems like high blood pressure, heart problems are more likely to develop serious illness. People with fever, cough and difficulty breathing should seek medical attention.

Spreading

People can catch COVID-19 from others who have the virus. The disease can spread from people to people through small droplets from the nose or mouth which are spread when a person with COVID-19 coughs or exhales. These droplets land on objects and surfaces around the person. Other people then catch COVID-19 by touching these objects or surfaces, then touching their eyes, nose and mouth. People can also catch COVID-19 if they breathe in droplets from a person with the virus who coughs out or exhales droplets.

- Make sure you, and the people around you, follow good respiratory hygiene. This means covering your mouth and nose with your bent elbow or tissue when you cough or sneeze. Then dispose of the used tissue immediately.

Why? Droplets spread virus. By following good respiratory hygiene, you protect the people around you from viruses such as cold, flu and COVID-19.

- Stay home. Follow the directions of your local health authority.

Why? National and local authorities will have the most up-to-date information on the situation in your area. This will also protect you and help prevent spread of viruses and other infections.

IMPORTANCE OF SOCIAL DISTANCING

The ability of individuals who are asymptomatic or have mild symptoms, but can still spread the disease, explains why social distancing is important. For people who are symptomatic, or have been in contact with someone who is showing symptoms, most countries are advising total self-isolation, for a week or two in order to limit further transmission of the virus. Countries that had epidemic firsts such as China and South Korea, have brought cases down dramatically through widespread testing.

Symptoms

The most common symptoms of COVID-19 are fever, tiredness and dry cough. Some patients may have aches and pains, nasal congestion, runny nose, sore throat or diarrhoea. These symptoms are usually mild and begin gradually. Some people become infected but do not develop any symptoms and don't feel unwell. Most people become infected but recover from the disease without needing special treatment. Around 1 out of every 6 people who gets COVID-19 becomes seriously ill and develops difficulty in breathing.

and Social Distancing.

Corona Fighters

Corona Fighters are the people who are helping us in this tough time. They include:

- Nurses and Doctors :- They are supporting the patients and are helping them to recover as soon as possible.
- Policemen :- They are helping to ensure that people are not breaking lockdown.
- SWEEPERS AND SERVICING STAFF :- They are helping to keep places clean and also delivering essential goods.

Steps Taken by Railway

- Most railway zones have 40% platform tickets from Rs 10 to Rs 50 in a bid to discourage gathering of large crowds in view of the coronavirus. It is only a temporary measure.
- Railways have started a massive awareness campaign.
- Railway hospitals have been provided with over 1,000 isolation beds for treating suspected coronavirus cases and more than 12,000 beds for quarantining them at different locations.

VIRUS OF PAST YEARS

The social history of viruses describes the influence of viruses and viral infections on human history. Epidemics caused by viruses began when human behaviour changed during Neolithic period, around 12,000 years ago, when humans developed more densely populated agricultural communities. This allowed viruses to spread rapidly and subsequently to become endemic. Viruses of plants and livestock also increased, and as humans became dependent on agriculture and farming, diseases such as potyviruses of potatoes and rinderpest of cattle had devastating consequences. Smallpox and measles viruses are among the oldest that infect humans. Having evolved from viruses that infected other animals, they first appeared in humans in Europe during the time of Spanish conquests, but the indigenous people had no natural resistance.

Events Postponed due to COVID-19

Today we all are facing the pandemic of Coronavirus (COVID-19). All countries of the world including India, China, U.S.A., Iran, Italy have at least 1000 infected cases of this virus. This virus is more lethal than the viruses of past years, due to which many deaths are there in every country. Almost all the country heads have imposed lockdowns in respective countries. This lockdown had led to stoppage in film shootings and T.V. programmes. Talking about sports the Federation Cup National Junior Athletics Championships, which was to be held in Bhopal on April 6-8, has been postponed. The Tokyo Olympics had also been postponed for next year. IPL which was scheduled in March-April had also been postponed but new time slot is not announced. The India Fashion Week, which was scheduled for March-11, had also been cancelled due to the coronavirus outbreak. The ongoing pandemic have taken heavy toll on general life. Almost all production industries are closed, basing essential services. This have led to job loss and eventually may led people to starvation and poverty. As an ordinary citizen we need to follow government guidelines to keep our self and society safe.

Dear Diary

10:00 p.m.

Let me tell you that, today I woke up at 8:00 a.m and my mother scolded me because I woke too late. Then I had my breakfast and after that I saw the time and it 9:00 a.m then I took my laptop and books and sat on my study table and started my online classes. After my classes ~~were~~ ^{got} over, I had my lunch in my lunch I had dal rice which are my favourite. After that I did my homework and then I made Yummy sandwiches with my elder sister and we all have it. After that, it was 7:00 p.m and my show was started I saw it and had my dinner at 8:00 p.m and then as usual I watched "Ramayan". My day was full of energy, so I ^{am} tired and want to sleep. Good night!

SELF COMPOSED POEMS

TRIBUTE TO CORONA WARRIORS !

He strolled up disguised as an invisible armour,
this is one so horrific, not a charmer.

Swiftly it tip-toed crept in our border,
imprisoned us all and became the warder.

Madly all over spreading his dangerous arms,
infecting the innocent, he pranced all along.

His foot displayed his arrogance for he new know ^{boundaries}
he knew no fence.

The loss it brought to all the living,
this menace is so cruel and so unforgiving.

Our doctors, nurses, defence forces &
the whole nation joined an alliance.

And we follow social distancing as an act of defence.

The corona warrior steady to cope

We salute our ambassador of hope.

We shall return stronger & victorious and work ^{for} a better future happy & glorious.

-Two months of lockdown have changed me-

What are we in
in this lockdown,
are we the lion in the cage
or is the lion roaming around.

What happened to that frisky ocean
known as India, silenced by a miniscule entity.

What has happened to me
in this two-month lockdown, which was like a drop in a frozen ocean.

Is it me or the others,
Or is it others or me,
Or have neither changed.

Before, our country used to jostle like an Ocean with a thriving environment.

Alas, that ocean
is still very,
still.

Before, friends and family
all used to come,
but now, seeing them
through small slits
there are assurances none.

But, one day some said “Don’t despair friend,
for you should do something that you have intend.”

Struck by the thought
I did what I intended.

I have become a person,
who has honed his spear,
to skill and precision.

I have become a person,
who craves the company,
of books.

But listen people,
this lockdown,
is nor friend, nor foe,

Dear Anshika

Hope you and your family members are all well and safe and fit in this dangerous environment of this COVID-19. Let it be aside. I just wrote this letter to tell you about the cancellation of my plan to come to your home in this vacations, I was really excited for that but the lockdown situations such happened that I was not able to leave at time.

I was just remembering our last time vacations in which we had a lot fun, playing in the pool, waking up till the night & listening those horror stories, that was really a good time. I assure you that I will come when everything starts again. Take care of yourself and uncle aunty!

Yours dearaly

THANK YOU

Truly dedicated to the epitome of knowledge –Ms. Rekha Sharma

From weakness to strength, from grass to grace and from nothing to something. The knowledge which we have gained from this project has been a great asset for all of us. Not only the students but teachers also felt very enthusiastic by working on all the four domains of English language which gives us an opportunity to learn new things in such adverse situations. You have been a source of inspiration and motivation for all of us .Thank you once again ma'am for being our mentor.
