

Activity name: Spectacles of Colloseum

(Play on the novel- All is well that ends well)

Class: VIII

Date: 24 th April,2023

Description:

On 24 th April,2023our very talented students of class 8 th performed and enacted roles from the famous Shakespearen play “ All is well that ends well”.

Every section was given different acts to perform and The students created a script for the play from the scenes allotted,the roles were divided, narrator was decided, background was selected and the entire presentation was created. There are a total 11 characters in the play and students made sure that they incorporated all roles in the scene to enact.

From script creation , to acting to costume selections to final presentation, our students aced it with flying colours. Their collective effort to perform was a delightful sight.

Here is a glimpse of the activity:-
