

ARAVALI CLUB ACTIVITY REPORT

Activity name: Plantations at Aravalis

Class: Aravali Club

Date: 29th March 2023

Description:

The children of Aravali Club visited a spot at Aravalis, a hill near Polytechnic, Manesar.

Children were acquainted with information of Aravali. It's extent in 4 states and how it has been a barrier to spread of North West Desert. The students planted few of the species like sunflower, pumpkin, mango, marigold etc.

Aim: -

The aim of plantation drives is to increase the number of trees in a particular area, which can have a positive impact on the environment and society as a whole.

Learning outcomes: -

Awareness of environmental issues: Plantation drives can raise awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and the role that trees play in mitigating climate change.

Knowledge of plant species: Students in plantation drives can learn about different types of plants, their growth requirements, and how to care for them.

Teamwork and collaboration: Plantation drive often require teamwork and collaboration among participants, which can help develop teamwork skills and promote social bonding.

Community involvement: Plantation drives can involve members of the local community, which can promote a sense of civic responsibility and community involvement.

Leadership skills: Students in plantation drives may have opportunities to take on leadership roles, such as organizing the initiative, which can help develop leadership skills.

Overall, the aim of plantation drives is to increase the number of trees in a particular area for environmental and social benefits, while also providing opportunities for learning and personal growth.

Glimpses of the workshop:

TEACHER INCHARGE: Ms. Priyanka Manocha