HERITAGE CLUB ACTIVITY REPORT

We feel privileged and proud to be a part of the cultural diversity of India. I love my country and I hope to contribute to its progress once I grow up.

We are proud of the fact that India is a developing country and despite the challenges it faces, it is making progress. We are also proud of the fact that India is a leader in science and technology and is making a mark in the world and cradle to worlds Civilization.

The country has also been blessed with distinct architecture and historical mathematicians too. Ramanujan and Aryabhata are recognized throughout for continued fractions and the discovery of zero respectively.
