

FABULOUS FABLES – CLASS V – JANUARY 2024

A mythological story of Eklavya was shown to the students of class V in the month January and they discussed their learning from the story.

The tale of Eklavya from the Mahabharata reflects themes of loyalty, sacrifice, and self-discipline. Eklavya, a skilled archer, faced a moral dilemma when asked to sever his own thumb as a guru dakshina (teacher's fee). His unwavering commitment to his mentor, Dronacharya, showcased unparalleled devotion. This narrative imparts the lesson of loyalty and highlights the importance of respecting promises made, even in challenging circumstances. Children can learn from Eklavya's determination, embracing the values of discipline and dedication in their pursuits. The story encourages selflessness, illustrating that genuine learning requires sacrifices. Eklavya's character becomes a powerful tool for instilling these virtues, serving as an enduring source of inspiration for young minds.

