

CLASS 3 – Fluting Fun

An activity was conducted for the students of class III in which they made flutes of different lengths using a straw to experience different tunes produced by the air pressure while blowing flute. The activity was very engaging and an experimental learning for all the kids.

