October	Epic Journey of Ayodhya Ke Ram
	The pre-primary department at BBPS Manesar recently hosted a vibrant dramatization of the Epic Ramayana as part of the Dussehra celebrations. The young students from Bal Vatika classes enthralled the audience with their captivating performances, portraying key characters and scenes from the timeless epic. The event began with the story of Lord Rama's exile, highlighting his journey through the forest with Sita and Lakshmana. The students enthusiastically depicted the memorable episodes of the golden deer, Ravana's abduction of Sita, and the heroic efforts of Hanuman in searching for her. The final battle between Lord Rama and Ravana, symbolizing the victory of good over evil, was powerfully portrayed, leaving the audience spellbound. The children, dressed in colorful costumes and embodying the spirit of the characters, brought the age-old tale to life with their innocent charm.
