

SESSION - 2024 -25

Date	Description
September	Learning Fair
	The Learning Fair was an exciting event. The event aimed to encourage creativity and foster a love for literature among young learners. Throughout the fair, children participated in a variety of activities, each designed to highlight their imagination and communication skills. . Students took turns performing their stories in front of a small audience, using different props, expressions, and dramatic pauses to bring their tales to life. It was clear that the art of storytelling was alive and well, with each child putting their own unique spin on traditional tales or creating completely new, imaginative plots. Overall, the Learning Fair was not just about the act of reading, writing, or storytelling; it was about building confidence, encouraging self-expression, and celebrating the joy of learning. It was an inspiring reminder of the importance of nurturing children's creativity .
