

Activity name: Make Your Own Battery

Class: VII

Date: 7/10/24

Description:

In this STEM activity, students explored energy storage by creating batteries with capacitors. They built circuits with capacitors, resistors, and LEDs, observing charging and discharging processes. This hands-on experiment introduced electronics, circuit design, and energy concepts, fostering curiosity and critical thinking.

Glimpses:

